

the return of the Neophron

Who are the stakeholders upon which the conservation of the Egyptian vulture depends?

Alkis Kafetzis, WWF Greece

Funded by the LIFE + programme of the European Commission & Leventis
Foundation

Introduction: stakeholders & conservation

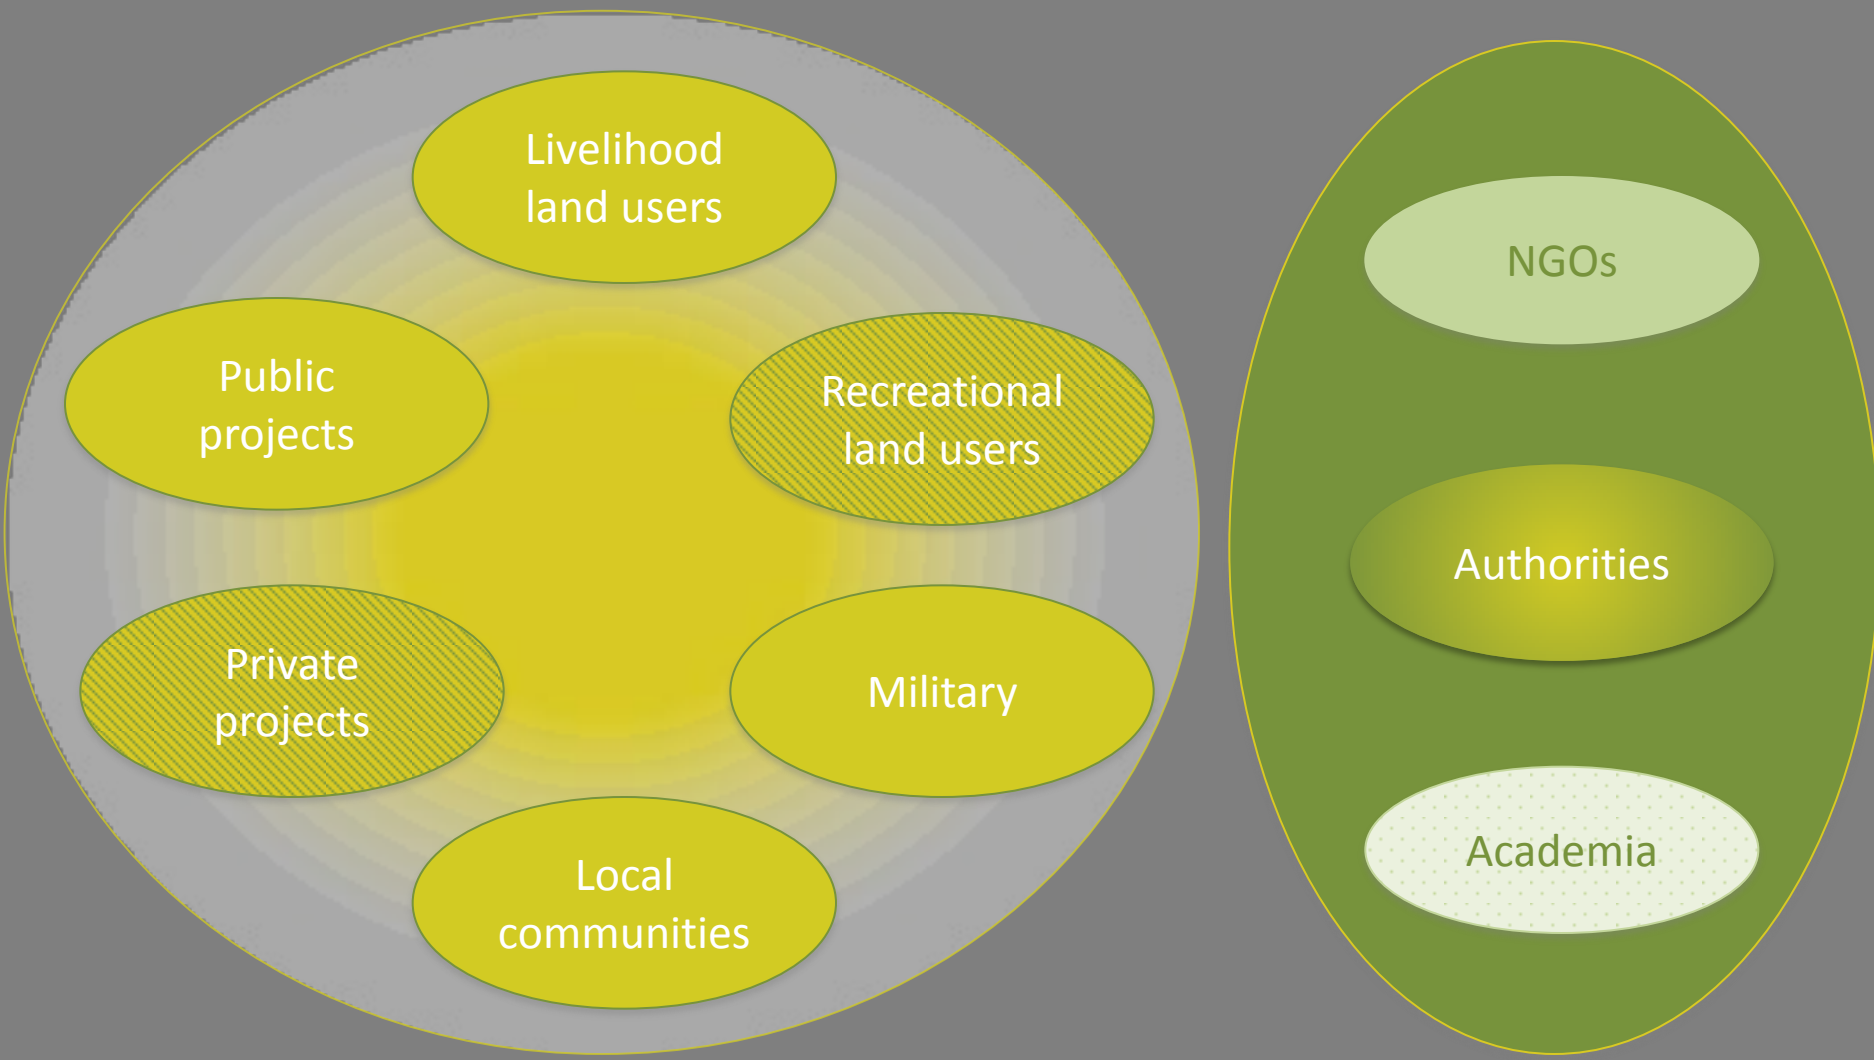

Incentive based tools

Command & control tools

Introduction: stakeholders & conservation

Livelihood
land users

Public
projects

Private
projects

Recreational
land users

Military

Local communities

NGOs

Authorities

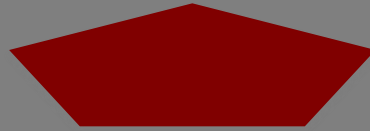

Academia

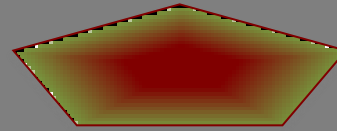

Introduction: stakeholders & conservation

Negative impact

Negative/Positive impact

Economic

Cultural

Policy

Economic/Cultural

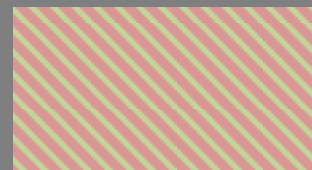

Economic/Policy

Implementation Authorities
Promotion NGOs

Implementation Authorities & NGOs

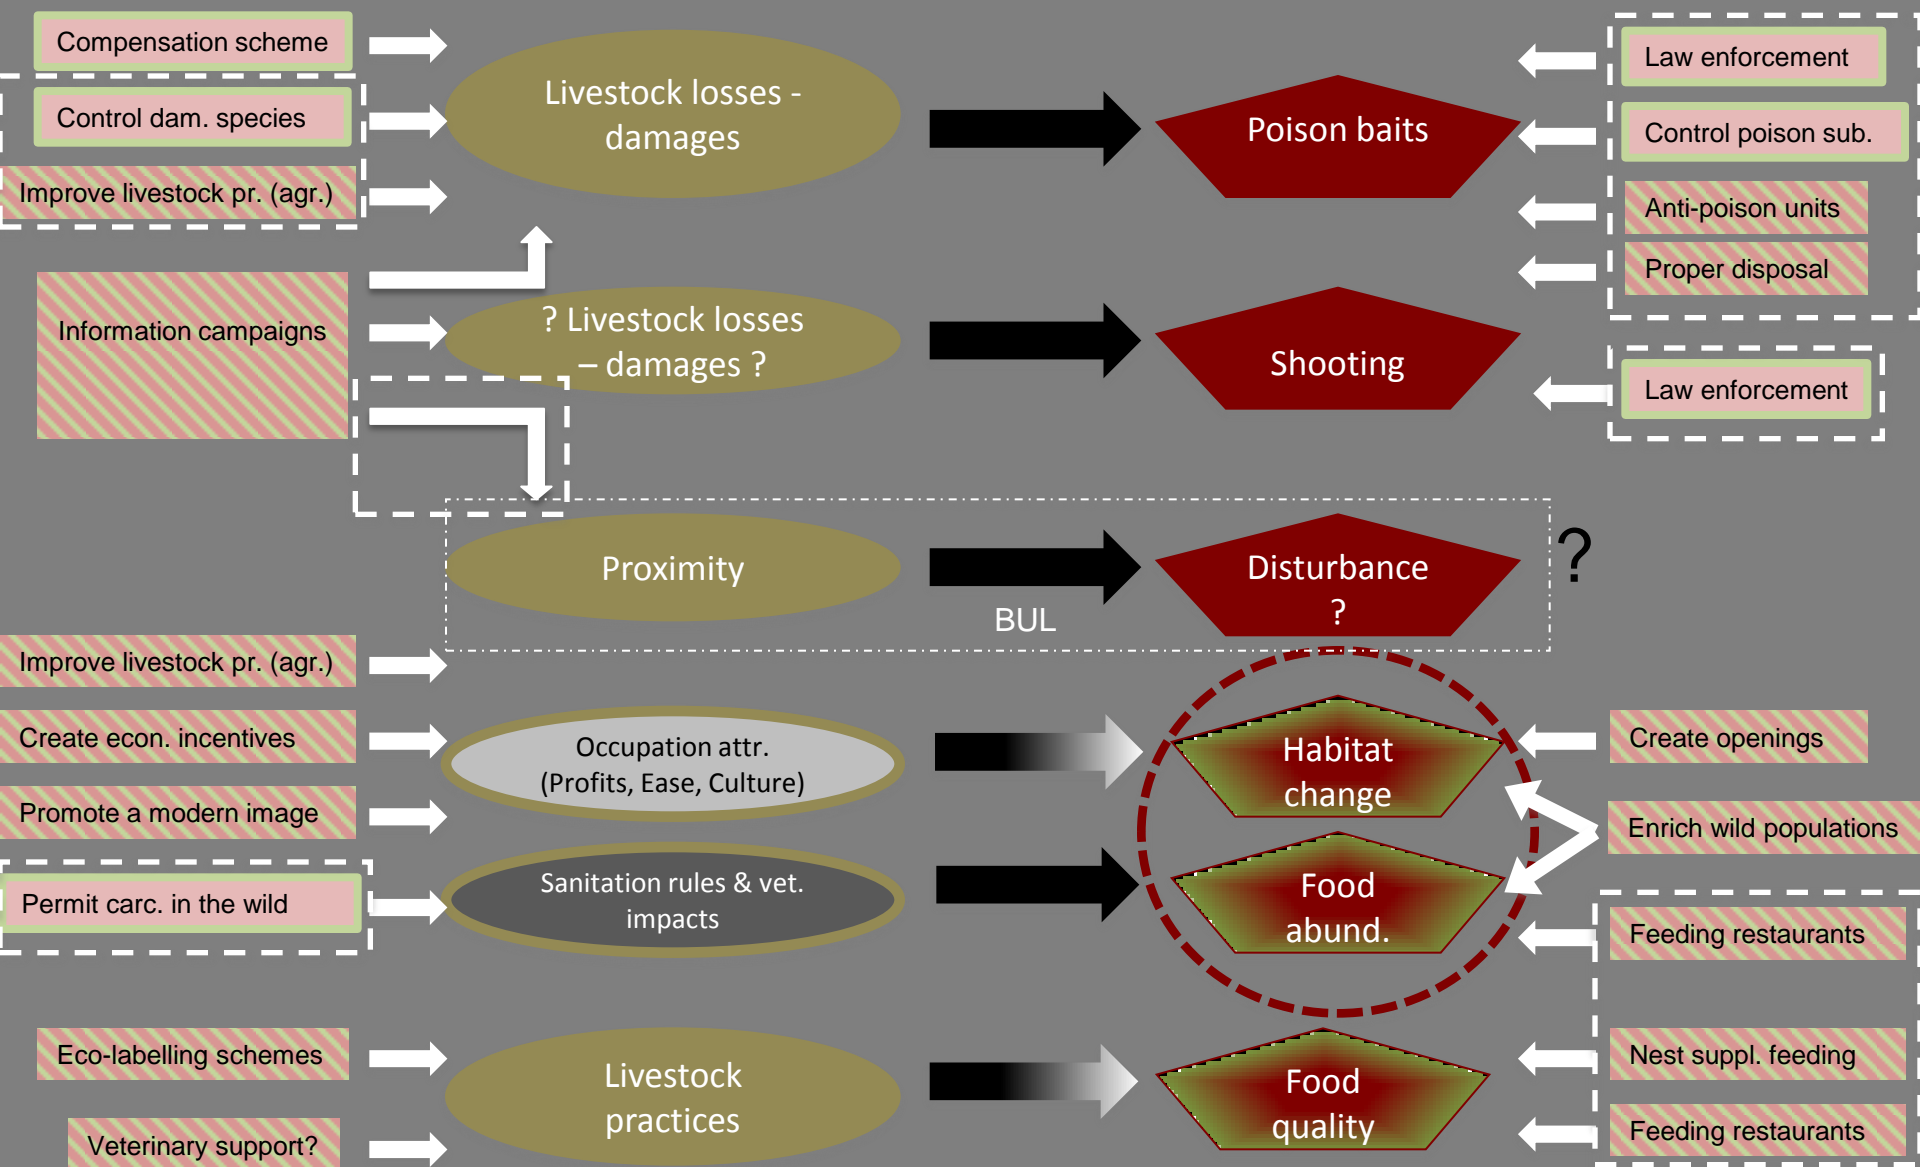

Direct effect

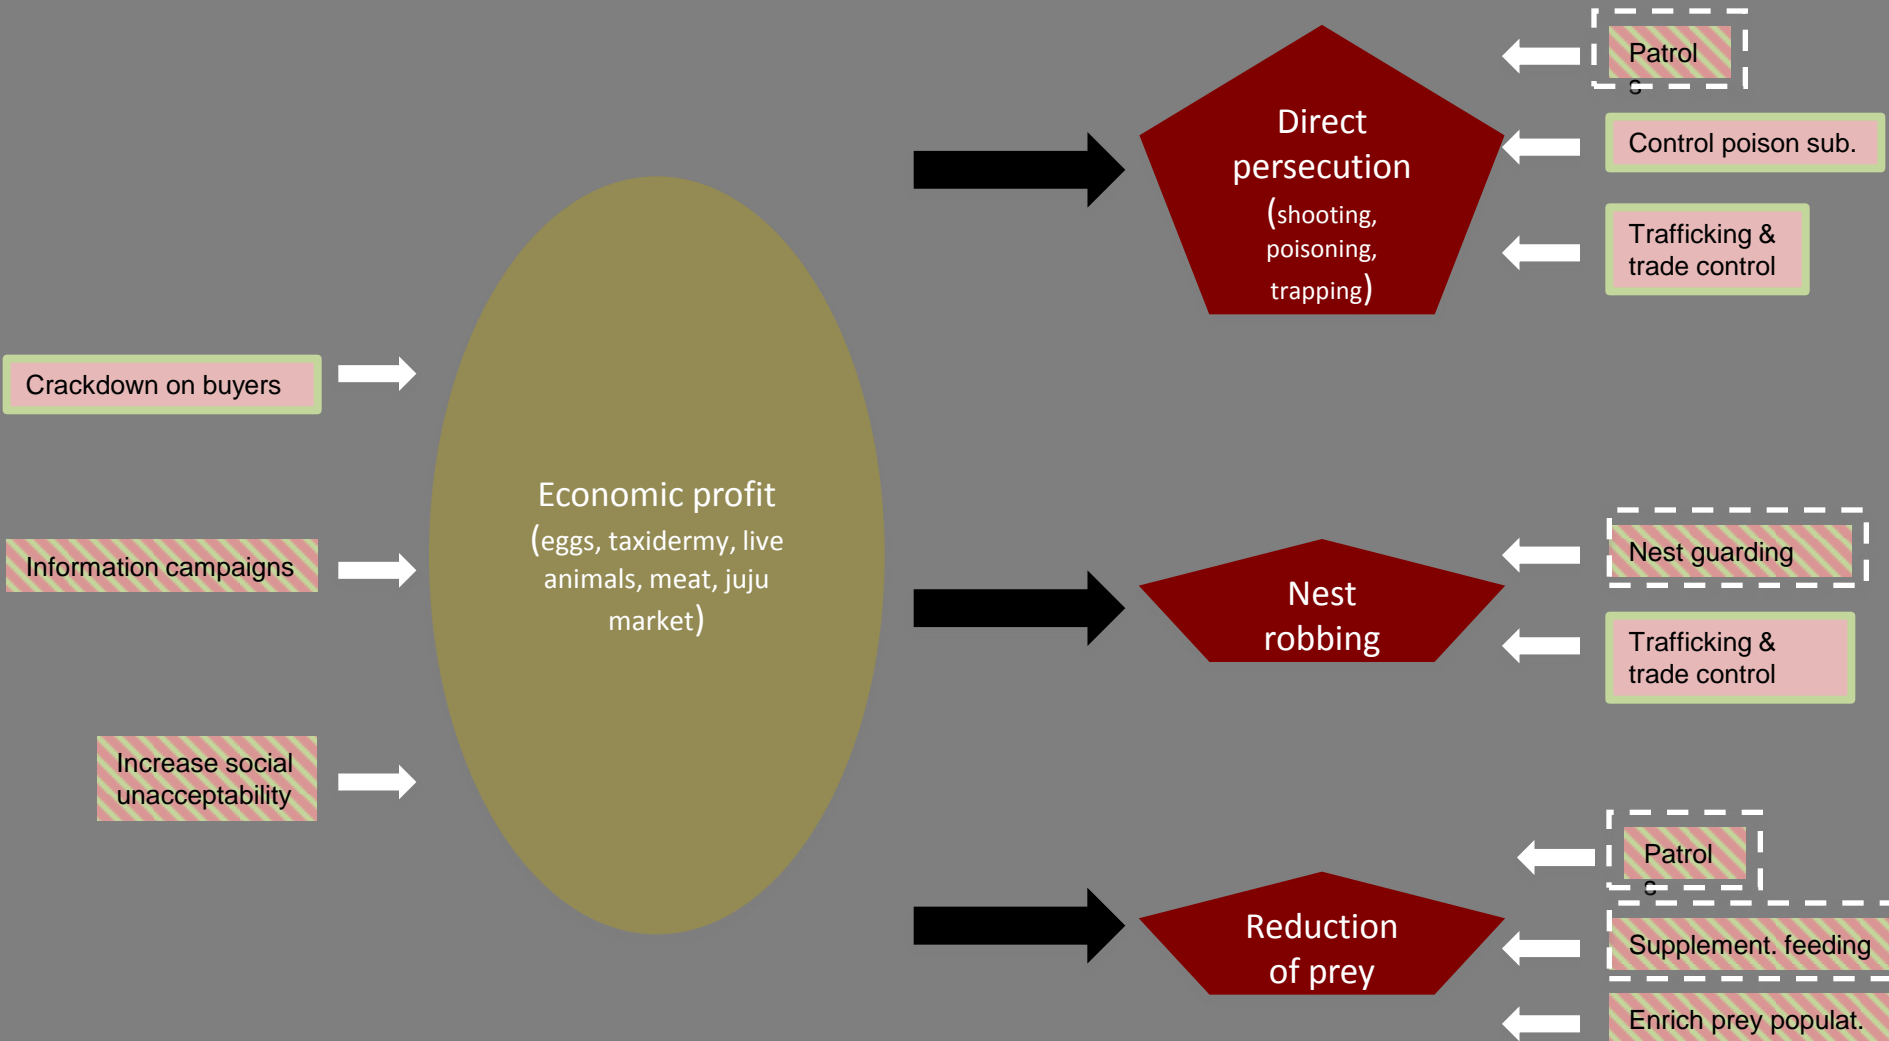

Livelihood land users: Livestock breeders/Shepherds

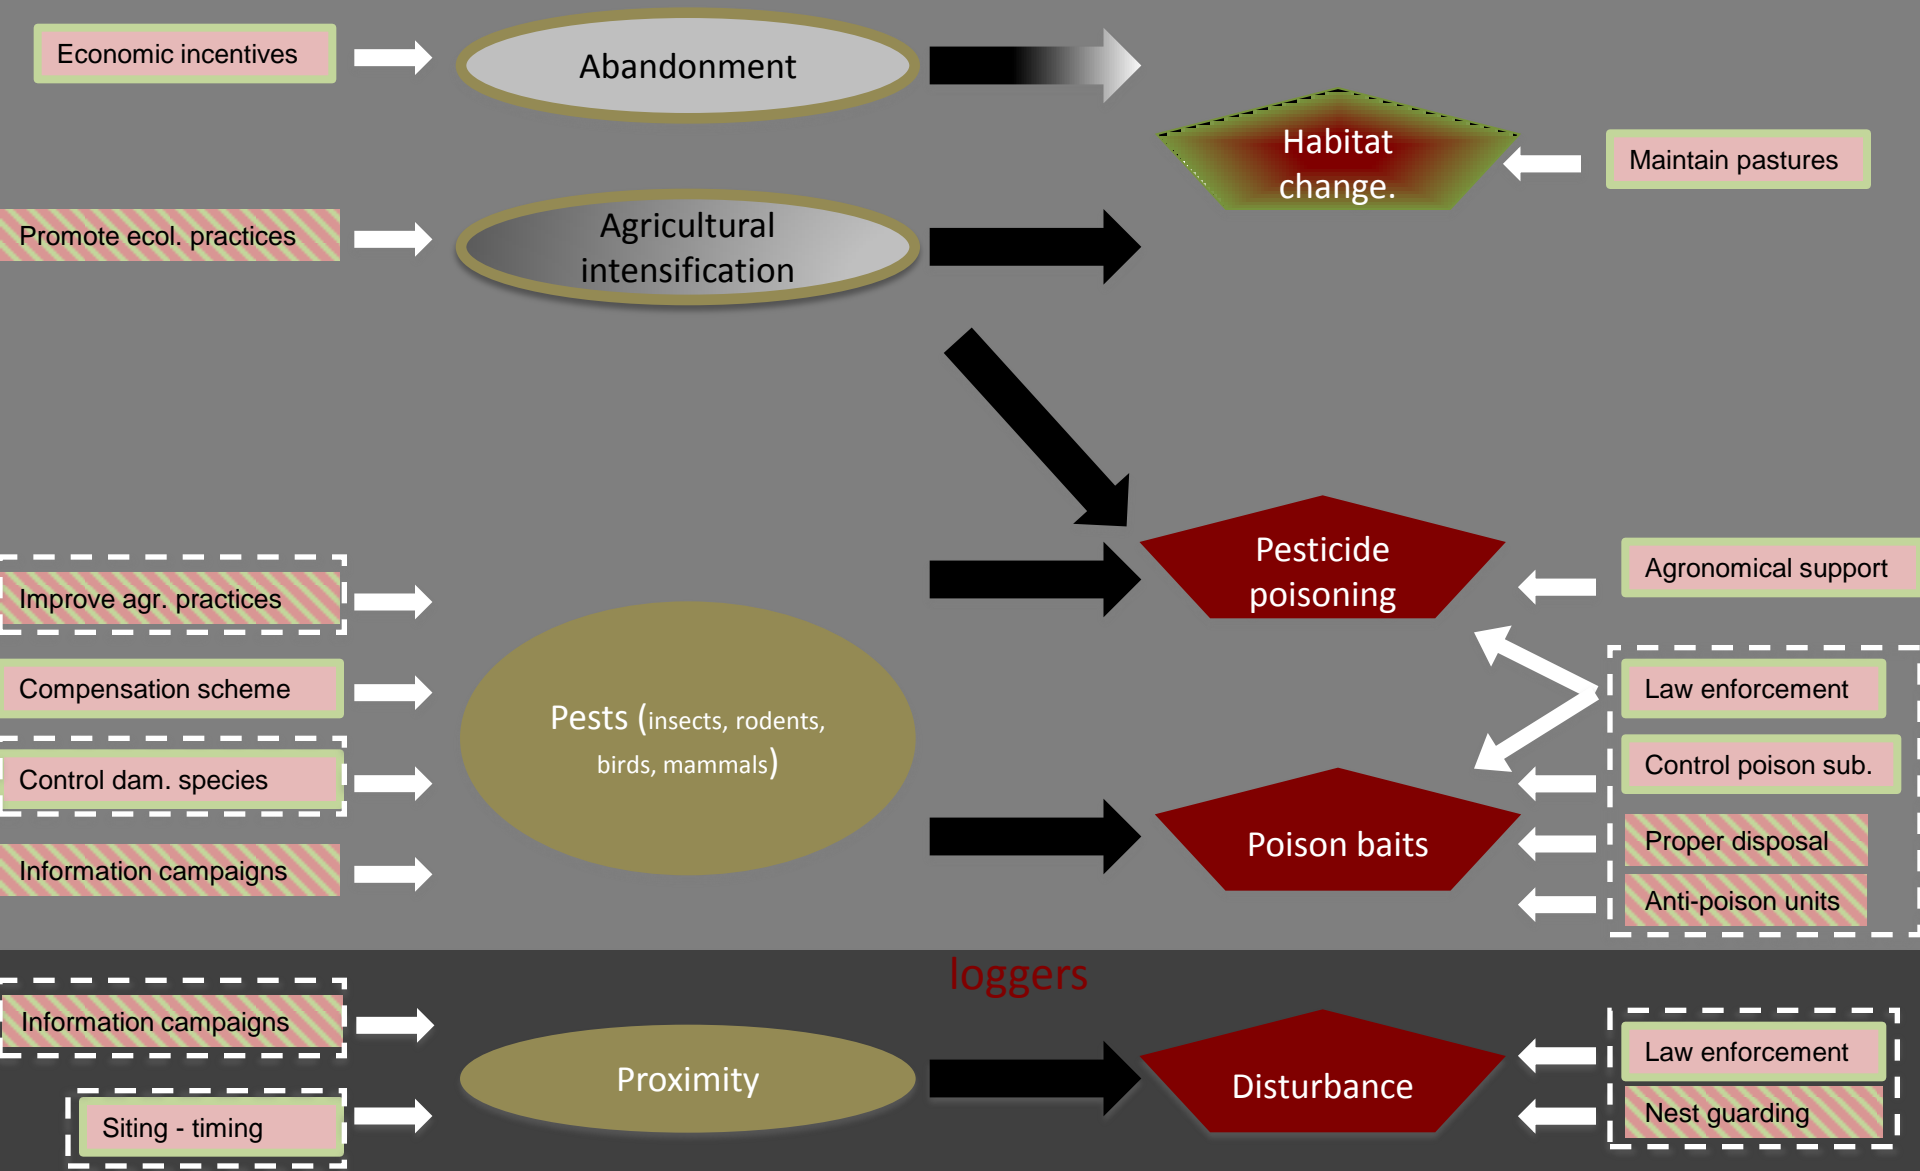

Livelihood land users: Poachers

Livelihood land users: Farmers/loggers

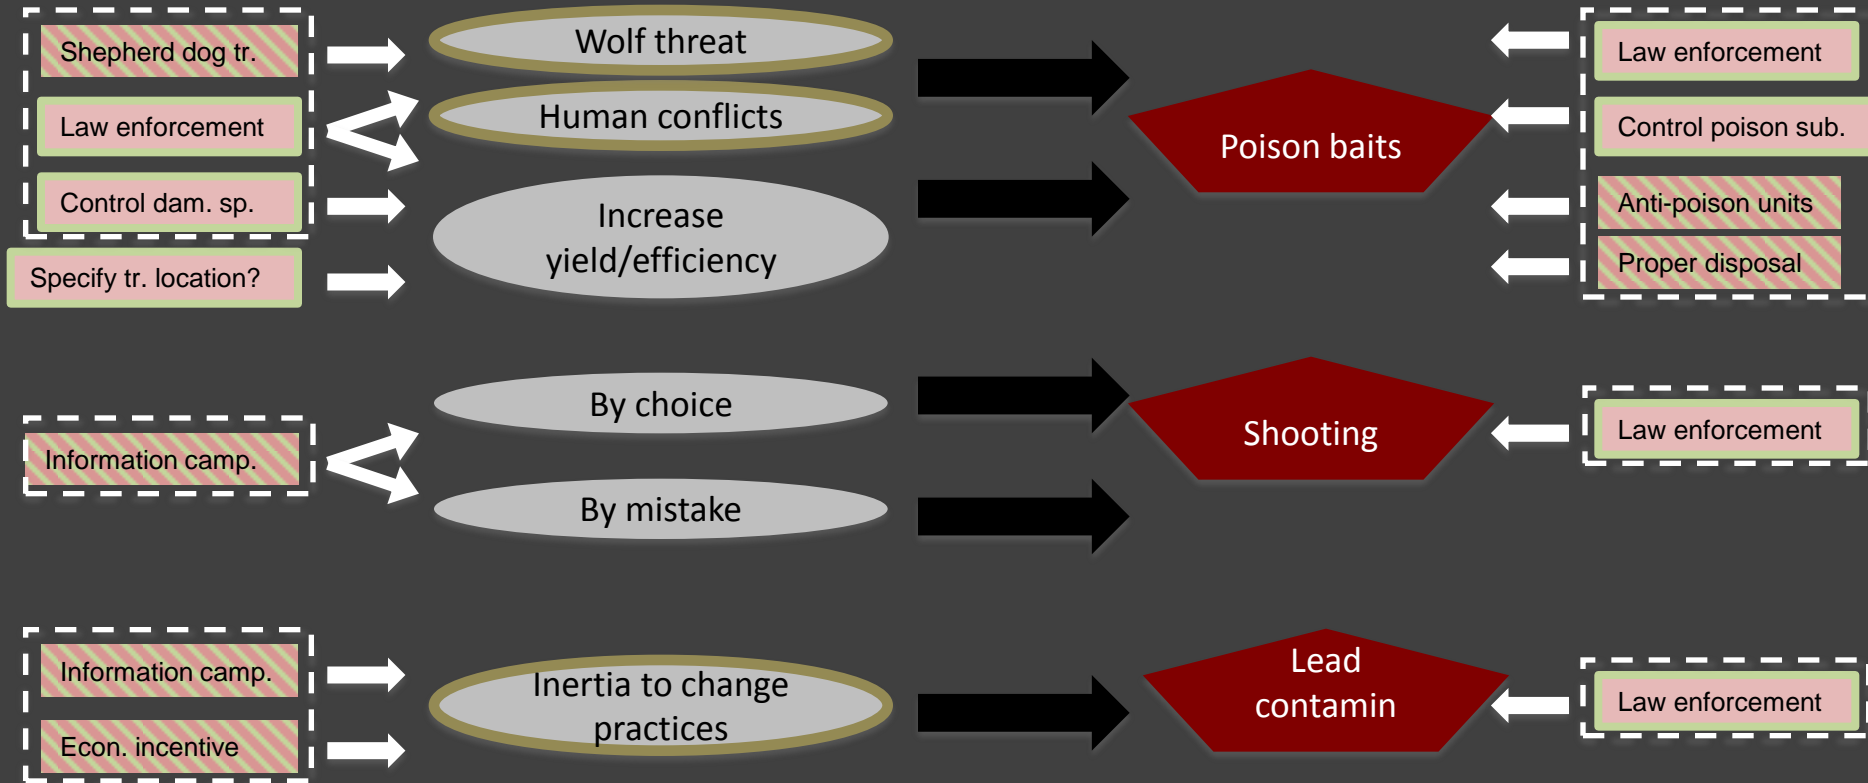

Recreational land users

Hunters

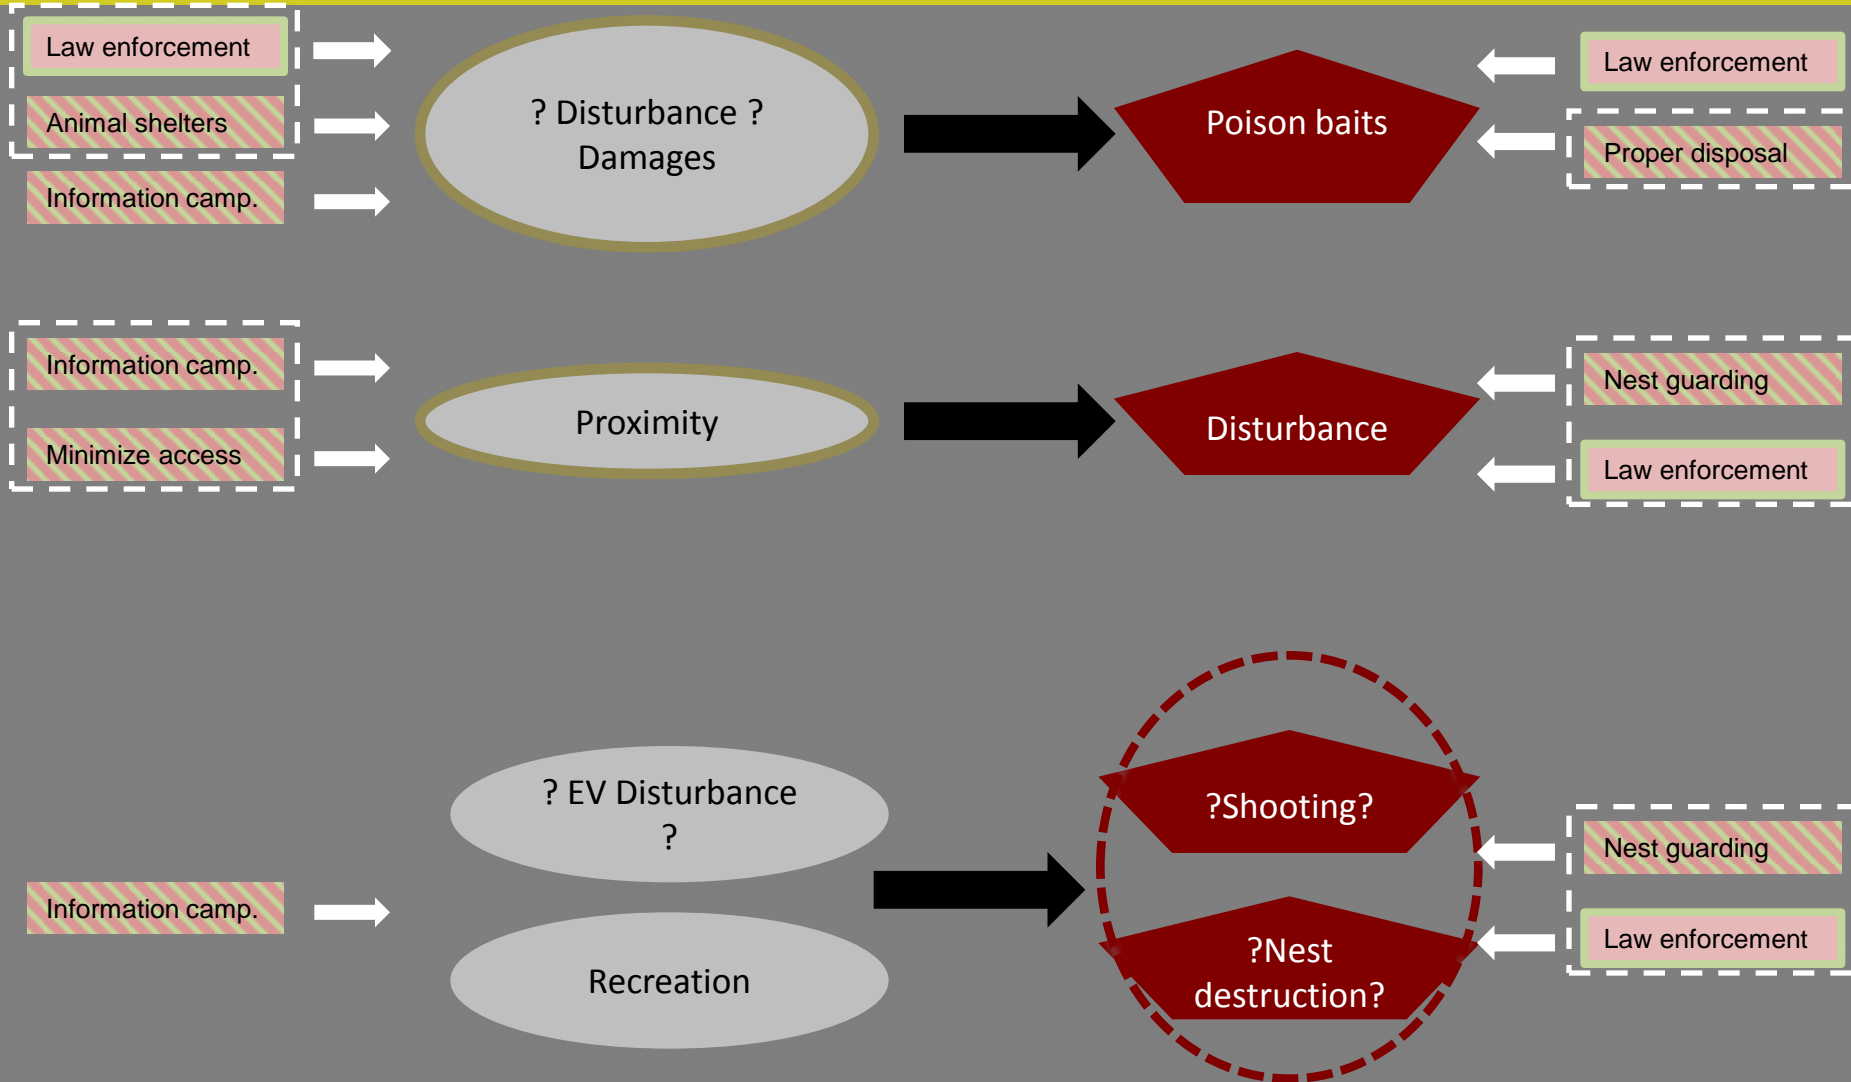

Tourists, Adventure sports, Treasure hunters

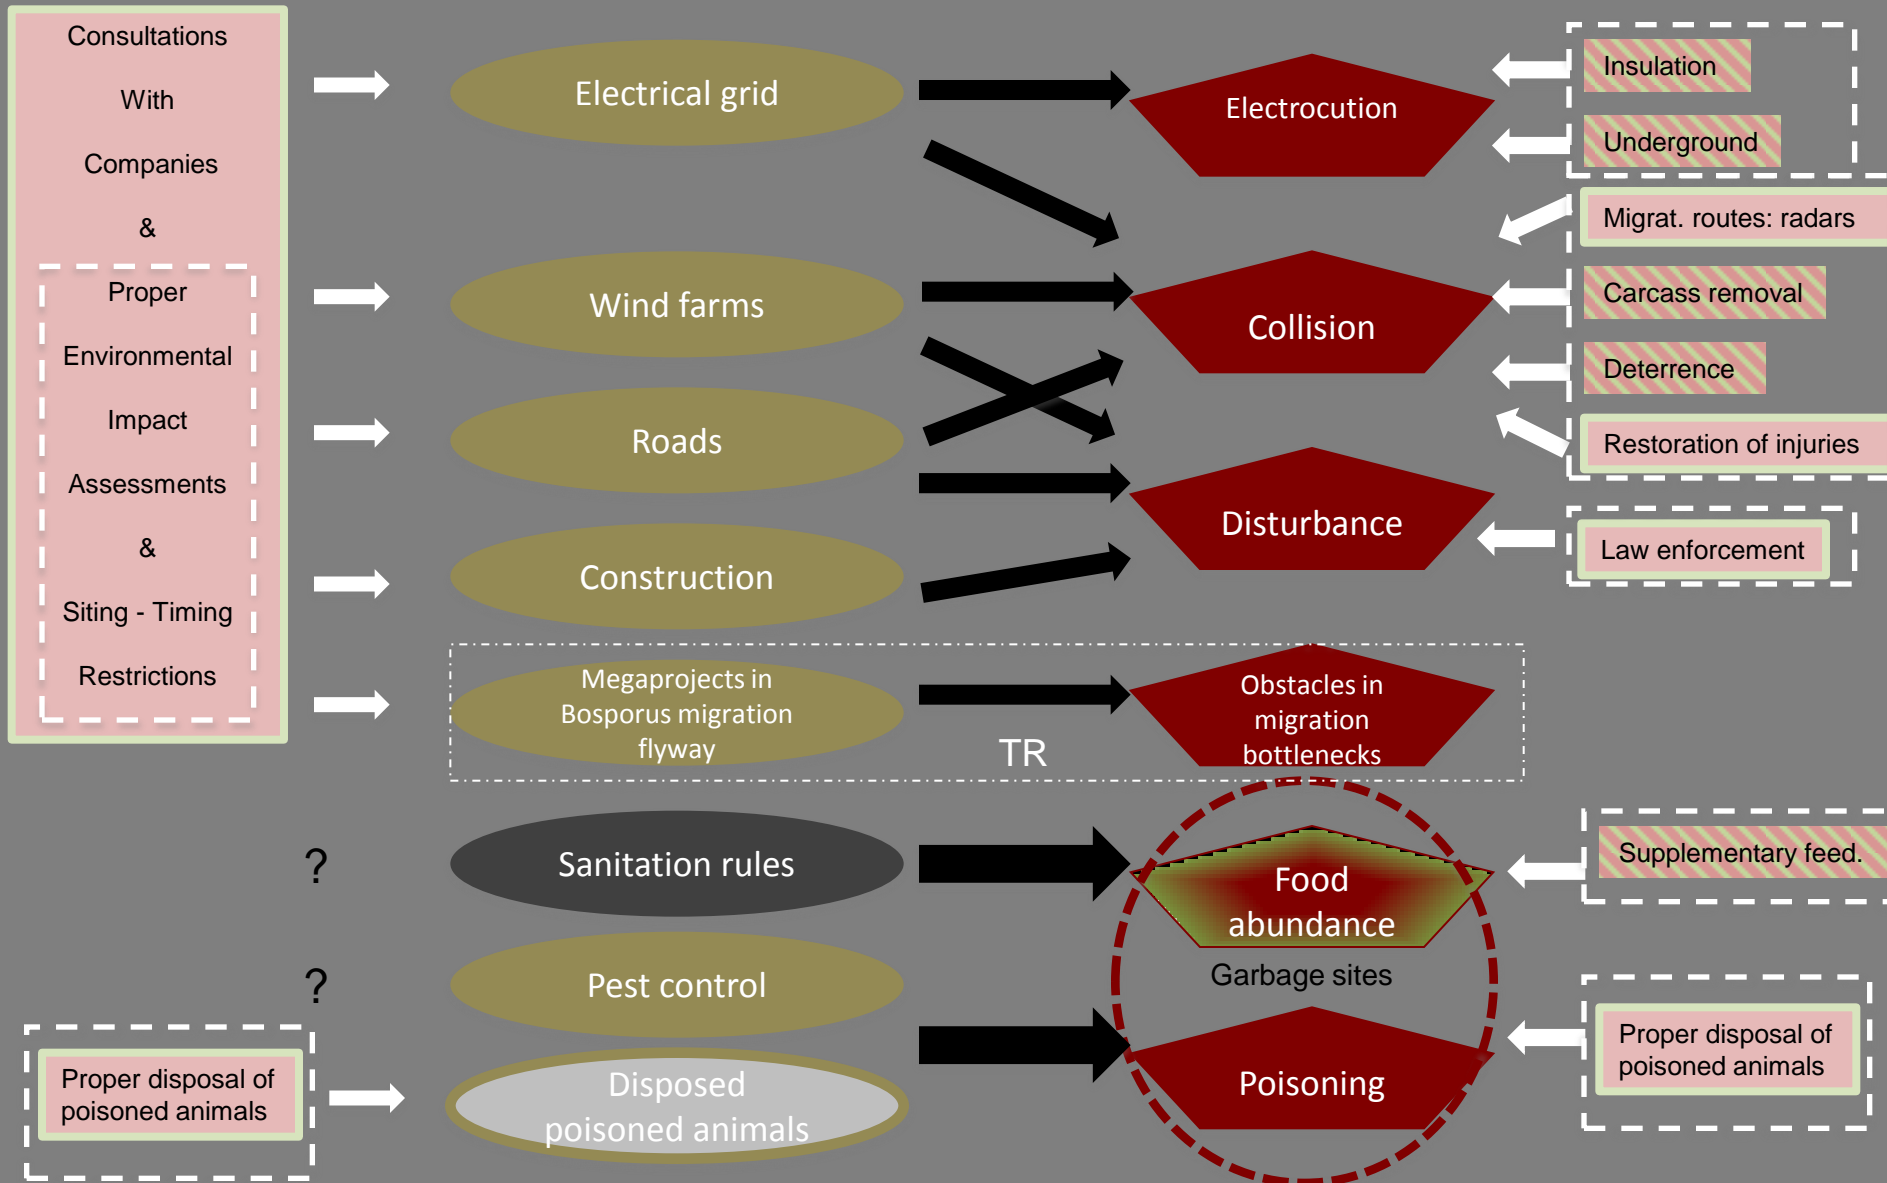

Local communities

Public – Private projects

Conclusions

Livestock breeders

6 threats
20 conserv. ch.

Recreational land users

4 threats
17 conserv. ch.

Private/Public projects

6 threats
13 conserv. ch.

stakeholders

Poison baits

5 stakeholder gr.
17 conserv. ch.

Disturbance

5 stakeholder gr.
8 conserv. ch.

Shooting

4 stakeholder gr.
6 conserv. ch.

threats

Law
enforcem.

Information campaigns

Improve practices
&
Econ. incentives

Guarding
&
Disposal of poisoned carc.

conservation

